

I oppose the weakening of Indiana's Telephone Privacy Act. American's should have a right to sit in their homes without having unwanted telephone solicitation. Indiana got it right with this.....don't let big business take that away.